

Avebury Oval Dining Table

The Avebury is like a cousin to our classic AVA table. This oval dining table is supported by stacked pentahedrons with a distinctly sculptural quality. They meet in a slender twist of steel, striking an intriguing sense of balance in the piece. The geometry is complex, but the result appears effortless. This contemporary oval dining table is an ideal focal point for dinner parties, with a soft, rounded format which invites everyone to join in the conversation. A neat pedestal base makes it easy to position chairs as you wish. We invite you to make the Avebury your own with a choice of glass, wood, or marble tops, as well as a wealth of standard and specialist finishes to choose from for the base. To complete the effect, have a look at our dining chairs.
