

Flint Console Table

Understated elegance, refined lines, and classical proportions are the order of the day with our Flint collection. The skill and expertise of our Wiltshire workshop are rarely better demonstrated than here. Each gracefully tapered leg is carefully crafted by hand, before being seamlessly joined together to create the strong, clean lines of this sophisticated table. It's a true embodiment of our design ethos, revealing the beauty of simplicity through impeccable craftsmanship and fine materials. Flint looks wonderful in all of our finishes, especially the luminous specialist metallics. It's an exceptionally versatile piece that's equally at home in a traditional or contemporary setting.
