

Lily Plinth

The amorphous Lily shape has become a TF favourite, taking various forms from cocktail table to ottoman. The latest addition to the collection is a sleek and elegant art plinth, which can be personalised to suit your preferences. The soft, curvaceous column can be completed in any of our standard or specialist finishes and topped off with your choice of marble. The Lily plinth is a piece designed not only to show off your most treasured art objects, but to compliment them with its sculptural beauty. To discover more about how you can creatively display art on a plinth, have a look at our Journal.
