

Papillon Console Table

The Papillon collection is characterised by free-flowing, organic lines and bold colours. The combination works wonderfully in this glass console table, available in any of our standard, specialist, and vivid 'Butterfly' finishes. Opt for dichroic glass to set the piece ablaze with cascades of colour as the light filters through. Browse our full selection of Finishes and Materials for a sense of all the bespoke options available. For a comprehensive guide to selecting the right console table for you, we'd recommend a look at our journal.
